

Week Three Bible Recap Discussion Questions January 15th-21st (Days 15-21)

Here are three reflective questions for each day's reading from January 15th to 21st, based on The Bible Recap's chronological reading plan with Tara-Leigh Cobble.

Day 15: Job 40-42

1. God's Sovereignty: How does God's description of His creation, including the Behemoth and Leviathan, expand your understanding of His power and authority?
2. Job's Humility: In what ways does Job's response to God's challenge demonstrate humility and repentance, and how can you apply this attitude in your own life?
3. Restoration and Forgiveness: What does God's restoration of Job's fortunes and relationships teach about His grace and the importance of forgiveness?

Day 16: Genesis 12-15

1. Call of Abram: How does Abram's obedience to God's call to leave his homeland inspire you to trust and follow God's direction in your life?
2. Faith and Righteousness: What does Abram's belief in God's promises, leading to his being counted as righteous, teach about the relationship between faith and righteousness?
3. Covenant Promises: How do God's covenant promises to Abram regarding his descendants and the land influence your understanding of God's faithfulness?

Day 17: Genesis 16-18

1. Hagar's Encounter with God: What significance does Hagar's experience of being seen by God hold for understanding His attentiveness to individual struggles?
2. Promise of Isaac: How does the promise of a son to Abraham and Sarah in their old age demonstrate God's power to fulfill His promises despite human limitations?
3. Intercession for Sodom: What can be learned from Abraham's intercession for Sodom about the role of prayer and concern for others?

Day 18: Genesis 19-21

1. Judgment and Mercy: How does the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah alongside the rescue of Lot illustrate the balance between God's judgment and mercy?
2. Consequences of Choices: What lessons can be drawn from Lot's choices and their impact on his family regarding the importance of godly decision-making?
3. Fulfillment of God's Promises: How does the birth of Isaac reinforce the theme of God's faithfulness in fulfilling His promises?

Day 19: Genesis 22-24

1. Test of Faith: What does Abraham's willingness to sacrifice Isaac reveal about the depth of his faith and obedience to God?
2. Provision of God: How does God's provision of a ram in place of Isaac highlight His role as provider in times of testing?
3. Seeking God's Guidance: What can be learned from Abraham's servant's reliance on prayer and God's guidance in finding a wife for Isaac?

Day 20: Genesis 25-26

1. Generational Legacy: How do the accounts of Abraham's descendants emphasize the importance of faithfulness across generations?
2. God's Covenant with Isaac: In what ways does God's reaffirmation of His covenant with Isaac encourage trust in His promises?
3. Responding to Conflict: What insights can be gained from Isaac's responses to disputes over wells about handling conflict with patience and faith?

Day 21: Genesis 27-29

1. Deception and Its Consequences: How do the deceptive actions of Jacob and Rebekah in obtaining Isaac's blessing illustrate the complexities of family dynamics and the repercussions of deceit?
2. God's Presence in Uncertainty: What does Jacob's encounter with God in his dream at Bethel reveal about God's presence and promises during times of uncertainty?
3. Perseverance in Adversity: How does Jacob's service to Laban, including the challenges he faces, teach about perseverance and reliance on God's faithfulness?
